

Connecting Business initiative (CBI) for disaster risk reduction, emergency preparedness, response and recovery

A demand driven, multi-stakeholder initiative meeting private sector demand for strategic engagement, creating more resilient communities and meeting needs of people in crisis.

Activities

- Providing a clear entry point for the private sector to engage in disaster risk reduction, emergency preparedness, response and recovery.
- Connecting private sector networks at the sub-national, national and regional levels, and among industry and thematic groups, to each other and other actors.
- Mobilizing and connecting partners.
- Developing and disseminating best practice on private sector engagement and facilitating policy engagement.
- Matching private sector capacities and resources to humanitarian needs through local networks.
- Supporting the creation and strengthening of private sector-led networks for disaster risk reduction, emergency preparedness, response and recovery.
- Producing tools and delivering programs to build the resilience of businesses and their communities.
- Integrating the private sector in resilience programs and national disaster management structures.
- Mapping and monitoring private sector engagement globally to identify gaps and target areas.
